3.4.2. Number of awards and recognitions received for extension activities from government/government recognized bodies during the last five years:

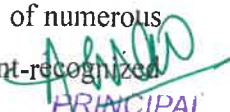

V. V. Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences (VVIPS) actively instills ethical values in its students through the integration of these principles into both academic coursework and extracurricular initiatives, particularly through the National Service Scheme (NSS). The college is dedicated to fostering ethical and human values, recognizing their significance in shaping well-rounded professionals capable of excelling in their respective fields and contributing to their communities. This commitment is realized through active participation in NSS, providing students and faculty with exposure to the social needs and responsibilities inherent in the institution.

The college's NSS unit consistently organizes camps in nearby villages, facilitating interactions between students, faculty, and local residents to gain insights into their challenges and requirements. These camps prove mutually beneficial for the academic and rural communities, offering students practical exposure to rural issues and an opportunity to apply their academic skills for societal benefit. Living alongside villagers during these camps encourages dialogue, revealing community issues and fostering in students qualities such as empathy, social responsibility, and a profound understanding of the importance of community engagement. This experiential learning extends beyond the confines of the classroom, enabling students to establish connections between their academic pursuits and the genuine needs of society.

VVIPS' dedication to incorporating professional ethics, human values, and institutional social responsibility into its academic ethos ensures that graduates emerge not only as competent professionals but also as compassionate individuals committed to social welfare. Involvement in activities like NSS camps further nurtures a sense of civic duty and social awareness, preparing future leaders poised to effect positive change in their communities.

Over the last five years, VVIPS has actively engaged in extension activities that champion ethical values and community service, resulting in the receipt of numerous prestigious awards and accolades from both government and government-recognized

Dear Sir,

I hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. I am writing to you with immense gratitude and a heart full of appreciation for your selfless act of donating blood. Your generosity has made a significant impact on my life and the lives of many others who depend on such acts of kindness.

The importance of blood donation cannot be overstated, and your commitment to this cause serves as an inspiration to others. Your blood donation has the potential to save lives and make a lasting difference in the community. It is a noble deed that deserves the highest praise and recognition.

Once again, I express my deepest thanks for your invaluable contribution. Your selflessness has not gone unnoticed, and I am truly grateful for the positive impact you have made. Your act of kindness has reminded me of the incredible power of community and the potential we all have to make a positive difference in the lives of others.

Wishing you continued good health and happiness.

With heartfelt thanks,
