Event Report

Event Name: Plantation programe on village

Date: 21/03/2021

Venue- Gudlavalleru

To maintain cleanliness and hygiene in Andhra Pradesh's urban and rural areas, our College NSS Unit carried out a plantation program in a village by doing away with open defecation, doing away with manual scavenging, managing solid and liquid waste, and engaging in information, education, and communication as well as capacity building activities. The building of public, community, and individual household restrooms is being undertaken by Swatch Andhra Corporation. Public-private partnerships are used for waste-to-energy and waste-to-compost programs, which address the scientific processing and disposal of municipal solid waste. Public-private partnerships are being used to establish C&D waste processing plants as a solution to the problem of construction and demolition waste. Additionally, steps are conducted to recover valuable municipal old waste sites via the bio-mining process. Alongside political With the backing of a highly motivated workforce and a large number of residents, the Andhra Pradesh government is prepared to make both urban and rural regions Smart, Clean, Safe, and Healthy by achieving universal access to sanitation.

Event Report

Event Name: Swachh Village

Date: 04th January 2019

Venue- Penjandra

A strong sense of teamwork emerged in everyone's hearts as the day got underway with much enthusiasm. The only sound emanating from everyone's mouth was "PENJANDRA, here we come!" An intensely enthusiastic and fervent trip from the city centre to the centre of attention for everyone in Anguluru. Arriving at our destination at approximately 9:00 am, we left from the V. V. Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences.

With a population of about 2000, Penjandra is a sparsely populated place. Each NSS volunteer was brimming with a brilliant sense of duty to carry out a mission that could be summed up as "NOT ME NOT YOU BUT WE!" as they first entered the community.

The task of preparing the centre stage was first given to each individual. Of all the tasks scheduled for the full seven days.

The college principal, Prof. A. Lakshmana Rao, presided over the event. The chief guest was Mrs. Bopana Padmaja, the president of Penjandra Village. Students (NSS Volunteers) attended the event, which was led by Mr. D.S.N.B.K. Prasanth, the NSS Program Officer.
